Dear Sir:

In reply to your letter of April 4, please find herewith the photostats of applications for land signed Welden Walker, Hanah Larraway, Florence Dunafan or Donavan, Margaret Cating, and Thomas Dempsey (1797-1816). The application of Selah Stiles, although mentioned in our index, has not been located in our file.

It seems that the application of David Lint was rejected by the Land Board without any reason being given.

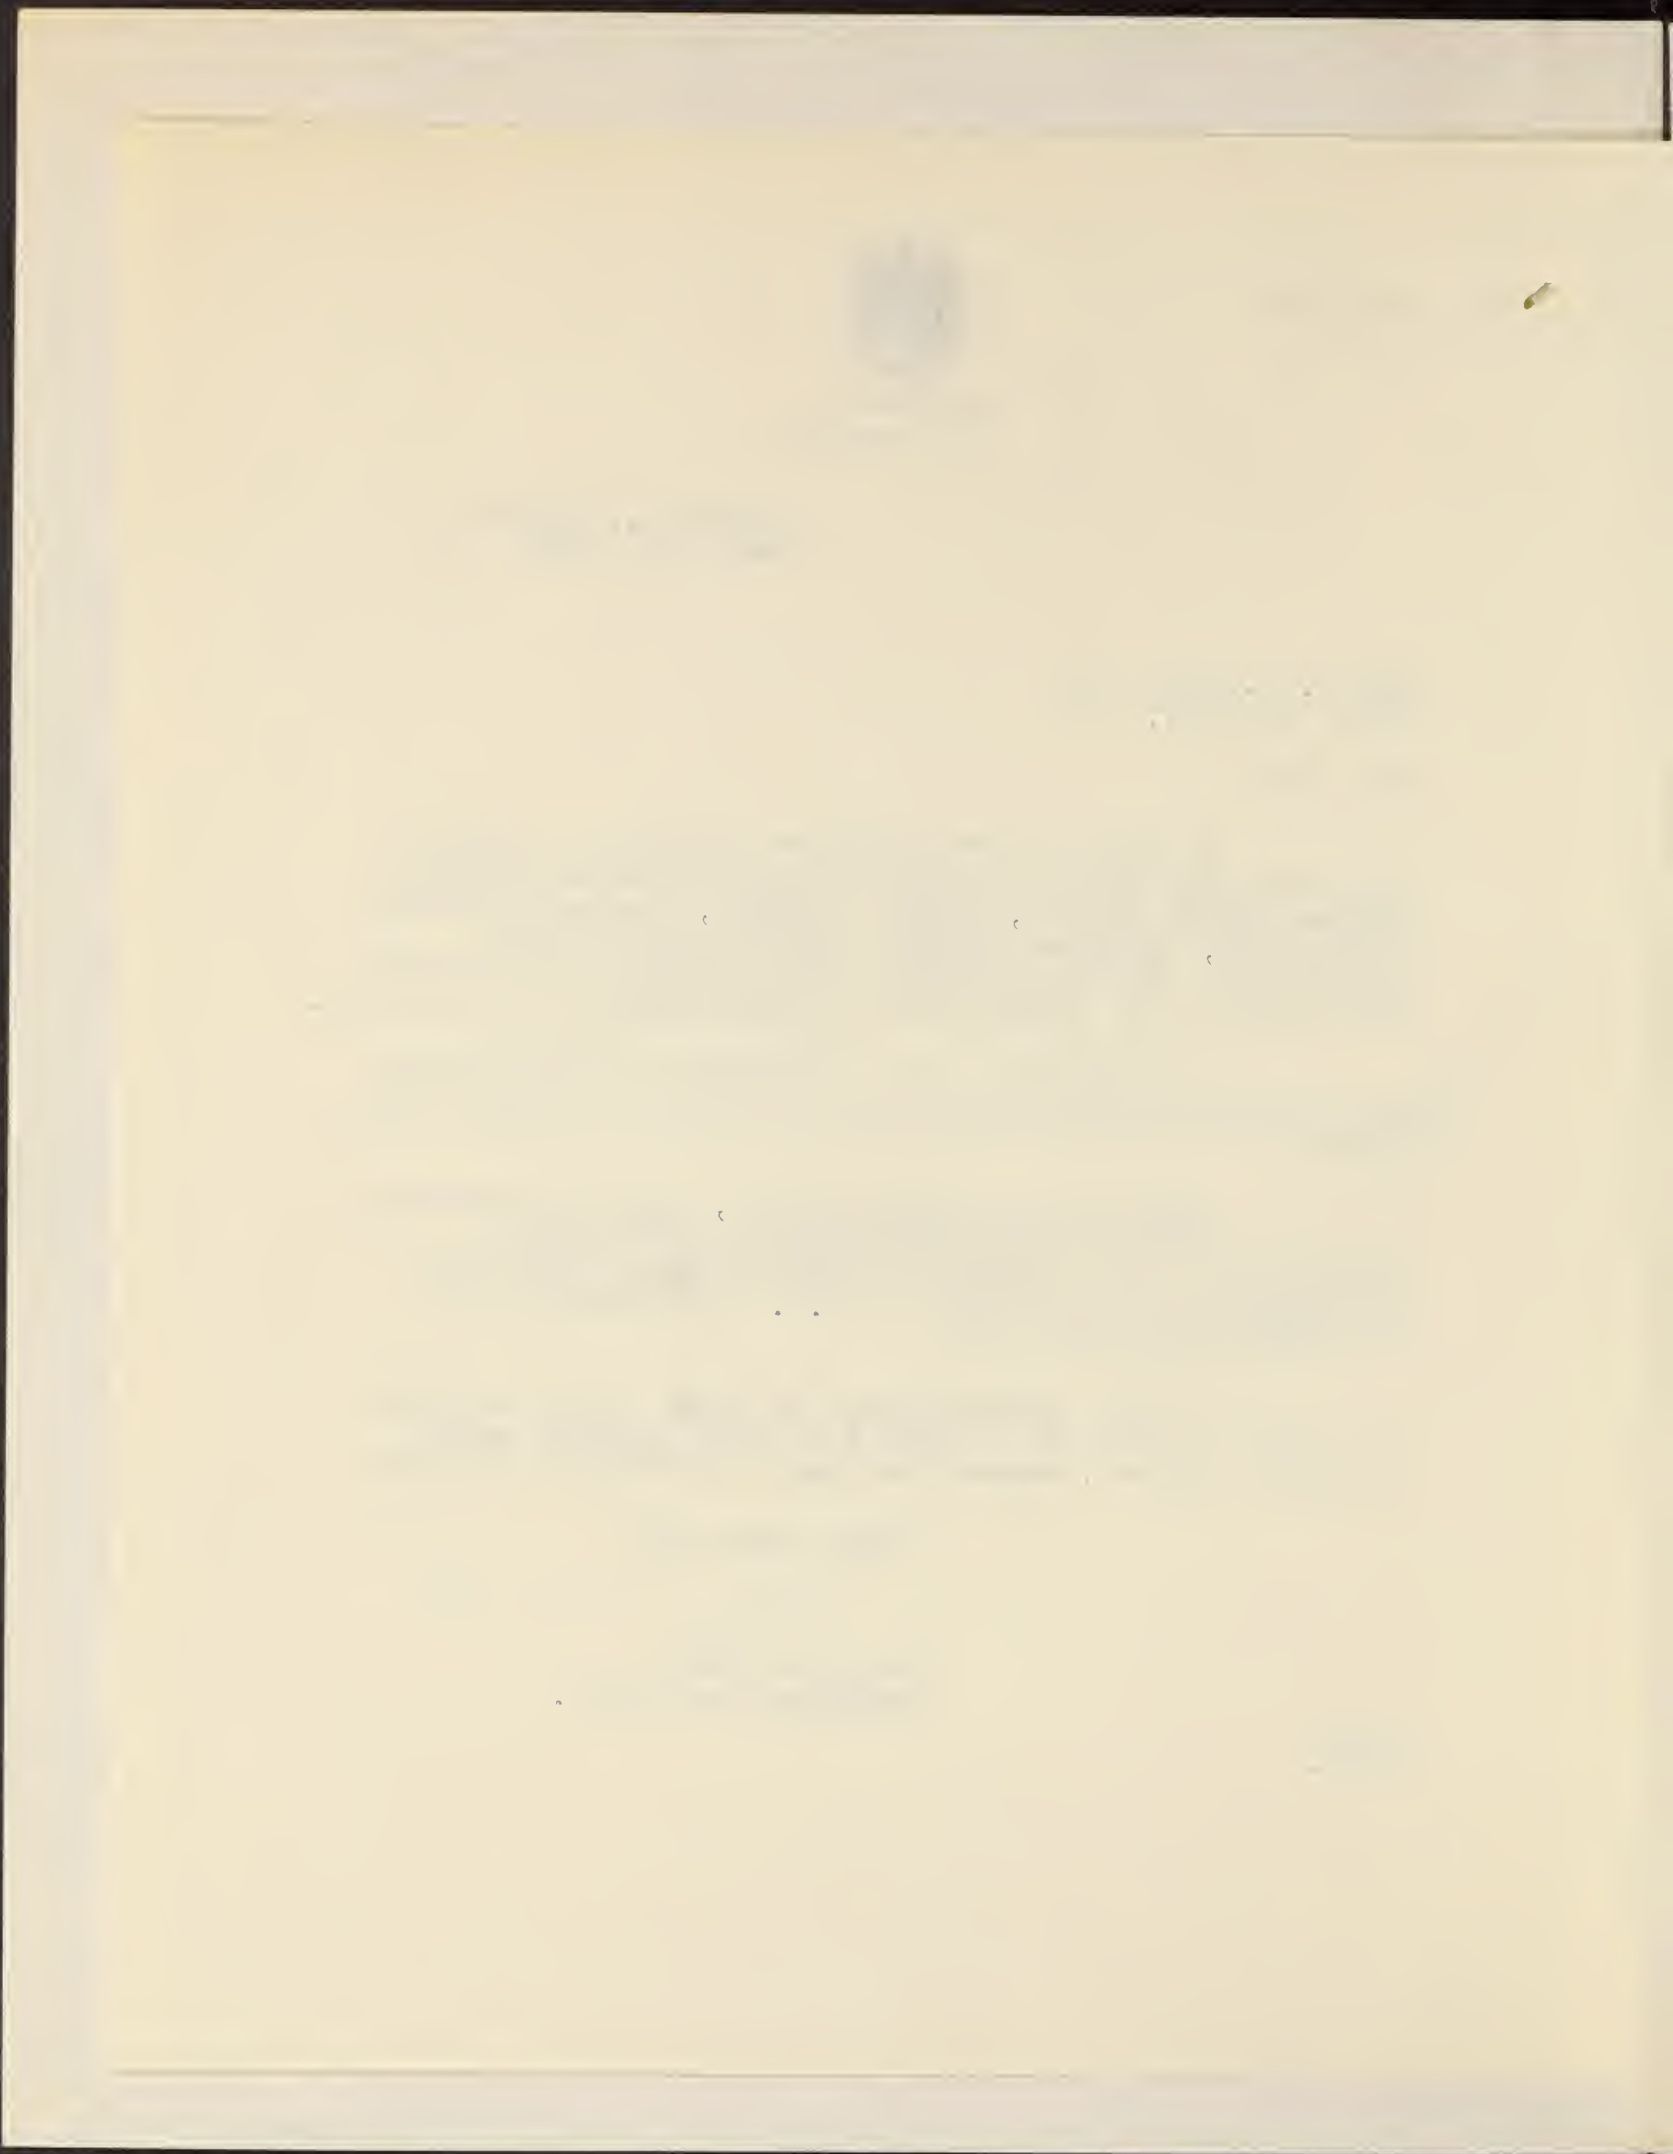

Instead of an application, our file contains, under the name of Eleazer Youmans, a Land Board Certificate which reads: "we have investigated into the loyalty and character of...". Presumably he was a United Empire Loyalist.

In the applications for land we are sending you will be found the answers to your queries about Florence Donavan, Hannah Larraway and Margaret Cating.

Yours sincerely,

W. Kaye Lamb,
Dominion Archivist.

Dear Dr. Burleigh:

Early this year I was fortunate enough to receive a copy of your monograph "The Fate of McCarthy the Martyr" from Mrs. G. Smith, President of the Bay of Quinte Branch of the U.E.L.A. I had written her to inquire whether she had any knowledge of one David Lent residing in the area, as it was known that he married Ruth Williams of Ernesttown.

You state that David Lent was Catherine Lent McCarthy's brother. Would you have come across any further Lent connections in your research for your work on McCarthy? Anything perhaps to indicate that Catherine Lent's origin lay in the Town of Cortlandt, Westchester County, New York, or who her parents were?

I realize this is an imposition, but I would appreciate any suggestions you might make as to where to write or whom to contact with an eye to further insight into the Lent origins.

Mrs. V.D. Fallone of Montgomery County has put me in touch with a Mrs. Ruth Hand who has done considerable research concerning the Lents. It is fairly apparent, however, that the Canadian line of David Lent has yet to establish secure footings prior to his entry into Canada, therefore I have undertaken to write you regarding this matter.

I trust my interest will not inconvenience you to any great extent. I enclose an envelope for your use.

Thank you.

Yours truly,

(Mrs) Kaireen Morrison

(Mrs. John) Kaireen Morrison

P.S. I neglected to mention that
Mrs. Ruth Hand lives in Schenectady, N.Y.
